

WILLIAMS FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM – 2020-21

University of Iowa Center for Advancement

The University of Iowa Center for Advancement (UICA) is accepting applications for a one-year, full-time Williams Fellowship. Recent UI graduates and graduating seniors who are interested in a career in philanthropy, fundraising, development, and/or alumni & donor engagement are encouraged to apply for this distinctive fellowship opportunity at the UICA. Through private funding, the UICA established the Williams Fellowship Program to provide an educational and professional experience for a graduate interested in exploring a potential career within advancement. The fellow will have the opportunity to understand how their own experience as a student has been affected by private support and will also learn about the impact of philanthropy and engagement at Iowa, in higher education more broadly, and at a national and global level.

The comprehensive program includes paid work on meaningful projects in a variety of advancement-related areas as well as exposure to the full range of work performed by UICA staff in service to the University of Iowa community.

This paid, full-time, one-year position begins in late May and includes a comprehensive benefits package. Though future employment is neither guaranteed nor required, a core goal of the program is to encourage the selected candidate to pursue a career in fundraising, advancement or engagement, ideally supporting the University of Iowa. The UICA offers competitive pay, exceptional benefits, and a first-rate work environment.
