The University of Iowa Center for Advancement Privacy Statement

At the UI Center for Advancement, we are committed to being good stewards of your personal information and ensuring it is collected, used, and secured appropriately. The UI Center for Advancement Privacy Statement may be read in its entirety through the following link. The information in this privacy statement summarizes our policy, procedures, and practices as it relates to your personal information. Minor Contestants

The parent or legal guardian of any minors (defined as ages 0–17) interested in participating in the contest must complete the submission form and provide consent to the UI Center for Advancement to collect and use the minor's information. If consent is not provided, the minor will not be allowed to participate in the contest. The information to be collected and used includes the minor's: first name, last initial, state or country, and contest entry.

Information on minors collected will be expunged once the contest has concluded.

If a minor in one of the four qualifying age groups (grades 3 & 4, 5 & 6, 7 & 8, and 9–12) should win, then the minor's first name, first letter of the last name, state or country, (e.g., Jane D., Iowa), along with their winning entry, will be posted to the contest website (foriowa.org/write-now). The prize will be sent to the parent/legal guardian completing the submission form at the provided address.

Minors should enter the age group that corresponds with the 2023–2024 academic year.

Eligibility to Participate

The contest is free and open to UI alumni, students, faculty, staff, and friends. Contestants must submit their entry between Monday, July 10, 2023, at 9 a.m. CDT and Friday, July 21, 2023, at 4 p.m. CDT. Once the registration is completed online, an automatic confirmation will be displayed.

Contest Schedule

The contest begins on Monday, July 10, 2023, at 9 a.m. CDT and runs through Friday, July 21, 2023, at 4 p.m. CDT. The winners will be announced on Wednesday, Aug. 16, 2023, at 9 a.m. CDT.

Story Assignments

Writers will create a fictional, original story—in 100 words or less—by selecting one of two prompts. The contest opens on the Write Now website on Monday, July 10, 2023, at 9 a.m. CDT. All stories must be created within the competition period and focus on one of the two prompts.

Deadline and Submission Format

- Deadline: Completed stories must be received by Friday, July 21, 2023, at 4 p.m. CDT. Late entries will be ineligible.
- How to submit: Stories must be uploaded through the contest website (foriowa.org/write-now) or submitted via email to write.now@foriowa.org.
- File format: The story must be uploaded as a Word document (.doc or .docx), text file (.txt), or as a rich text format document (.rtf). Stories submitted in Apple's Pages format will not be accepted. The name of the file must be the title of the story. For example, if the title of your microstory is "Autumn," then the name of your file must be "Autumn.doc," "Autumn.txt," or "Autumn.rtf."
- Font: Submissions must be typed in 12-point Courier, New Courier, or Times New Roman typeface.
- Anonymity: The author's name must not appear anywhere in the microstory document. The author's name will be submitted only on the web entry form.
- Length: The maximum length for each microstory is 100 words. Entries with more than 100 words will be disqualified.

Judging:

Entries will be judged on the following: format; spelling and grammar; and story (use of prompt, writing, originality, character development, and plot development).

There are six age categories: grades 3 & 4, grades 5 & 6, grades 7 & 8, and grades 9–12; and adult (UI alumni and non-UI alumni). One winner will be selected from each category.

Feedback on the individual entries will not be provided.

Creative Development

All creative development for stories must take place between the contest's entry window, from Monday, July 10, 2023, at 9 a.m. CDT and Friday, July 21, 2023, at 4 p.m. CDT. All decisions as to compliance with the contest's entry window are within the sole discretion of the UI Center for Advancement; and any such decisions by the UI Center for Advancement are final, conclusive, and binding upon all entrants. The UI Center for Advancement reserves the right to disqualify any entries that are plagiaristic or otherwise unoriginal to the corresponding entrant.
